2. The practice followed by [REDACTED] of requesting corrections or changes on individual graphic items during his examination of a section will be discontinued immediately. In its stead it is desired that [REDACTED] complete his examination of a section and then cover all points in question in one meeting with the team supervisor, and that this meeting be held out of hearing of any member of the team concerned, unless by mutual agreement one or more of the members are requested to participate in the discussion.
